Happy Anniversary

The special memory day for Joan and the late Ray Shatzka, March 28th!

Are we a Faithful church?

What is the Church?

The Church is the congregation of saints in which the Gospel is purely taught and the Sacraments are correctly administered. For the true unity of the Church it is enough to agree about the doctrine of the Gospel and the administration of the Sacraments.

Augsburg Confession – Article 8

What is the work of the Church?

¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.
- Matthew 28:19-20

500 years ago, as the reformation was just starting out there was a lot of confusion about these two questions. While it was questions about the nature of Salvation, and how one receives God's salvation, which triggered the reshaping of the church, much of the turmoil which followed came because there was little clarity about just what the church was and what it was supposed to be doing. The Roman Catholic church had come to identify itself with political and social power—and in many ways the work of the church became more and more focused on building this political and social power.

The Vatican became obsessed with amassing money, art, buildings, and political capital, and in the process the teaching and passing on of the Gospel was forgotten, and the making of disciples was obscured. The average Christian never encountered the scriptures or preaching in a language that they understood. Even in the giving of the Lord's Supper the promises of God, that Christ's body and blood are given for you, were obscured in ornate ceremonies and strange language. It is not that the Gospel had been completely lost, but it was so obscured that few in the church, including priests and monks, really understood that God loved them so much that they were worth dying for.

As we work our way through the 500th year since the posting of Luther's 95 Theses, we at Calvary have the opportunity to ask ourselves, "Are we living in ways that are faithful to our understanding of what the Church is and the work we are called to do?"

I am proud to say that I believe this is largely the case. We do a very good job at Calvary on focusing on the most important aspects of our ministry together. We are a congregation that indeed trusts that it is enough to agree about Jesus' unmeasurable love for all people and to share that love in both word and sacrament. We are a congregation that takes pride in our service ministries, in our building, in our food and in many other aspects of our ministry, but I cannot think of a single time when any of these priorities take precedence over the Good News of the Gospel.

The question then arises, "Are we making disciples?" Indeed, there are lots of opportunities at Calvary to grow in our understanding of scripture, to live out our faith. This is a place where we care for one another, teach one another and encourage each other to do the same.

Calvary Lutheran Church, in my mind is clearly a congregation that is clear about what it is, and what it is called to do—but that does not mean that we are not in need of the Reformation to be constantly working in our lives. It occurs to me that Calvary shares a weakness with many congregations in the Lutheran tradition. We struggle to be comfortable in the sharing of our faith and inviting others to participate in our faith lives.

- Many of us long to find ways to share our faith with our friends and family.
- We long for others to experience the peace, love, grace and freedom that we experience through our relationship with Jesus.
- We long for the excitement of walking along side new Christians as they experience the blessings of Christian faith for the first times in their lives...It is not that we want to keep our faith to ourselves but it is that we simply don't feel confident in sharing our faith in ways that will be received as helpful and as a blessing.

As we look at the future of Calvary Lutheran Church and Preschool, we will need to focus on this. If we are to tell the story of Jesus' love with all people, we will need to find ways to be invitational in ways that enable us to share Jesus with those who are the most uncomfortable with church. We will need to find ways to reach out to those who are hostile towards God. We will need to find ways to reach out to the skeptical, the lonely, the worried, and the wounded. Most of all, and perhaps most difficult of all, we will need to find ways to share our faith with those in our families and circles of friends who have turned away from God.

Over the next several months you will hear lots of language about being invitational. You will also hear a lot of challenges as you are invited to live out your faith in new and difficult ways. All of this is our effort to constantly be "reforming" Calvary so that our faithfulness to the Gospel always first and foremost in our existence.

A Week of camp for the entire

Calvary Lutheran Family

June 18th to 23rd

Registration Deadline is April 16th!

Tribe Camp is a time for adults and kids of all ages to spend a week at Lutherhaven growing in their relationships with God and with one another. Adults spend time taking on service projects at camp, helping lead crafts and activities, helping in the kitchen and doing all sorts of little things to make camp happen. Of course there is lots of time for rest and recreation as well. Kids participate in Lutherhaven's camp program with other kids their age, usually sharing a cabin with other kids from Calvary. Each day we have an hour of Tribe time where all Calvary's kids and adults come together for a fun activity.

Adults: $70.00 (Flat fee regardless of how many nights you stay at camp)

- Lunch and Dinner in the dining hall are included
- Campground space is included. (Retreat center costs extra)
- Opportunities to interact with your kids during meals, craft time, worship time, and "Tribe Time"
- Lots of volunteer opportunities of all kinds
- Can't stay the whole week? Come and go as necessary.

Kids: 1/2 Price participation in Lutherhaven Camp programs!

- Stay in Cabins with kids your own age for the week
- Swim, hike, worship, archery, crafts, boat, etc...
- Opportunities to interact with your adults from Calvary during meals, craft time, worship time, and "Tribe Time"
- Special 2-night program for 8 & 9 year olds.
- Additional Financial Assistance is available with a simple application.

Kids 7 years old and younger: $25.00 (Flat fee)

- Play in Camp with their loving adults.
- See big sisters and brothers at "Tribe Time"

Calvary Lutheran Kitchen

KITCHEN CLEAN UP: The kitchen and pantry have been cleaned up and re-organized in part. Some drawers, shelves and cupboards have been re-labeled and instructions for the dish sanitizer (it never was a “washer”) have been corrected and enhanced. Please take note of the following.

PANTRY: The shelves in the pantry have been re-labeled. If you need space for a group or function, please contact Lynn Borders and he will arrange for an assigned space. The items that we only use occasionally have been moved to less “valuable real estate” or placed in storage. If you are looking for items for special events that were previously in the pantry, please contact building and grounds BEFORE purchasing new items. Please mark ALL items with your group’s name. Items unmarked will be considered to be for general use and will be used or disposed of accordingly. Fellowship items are on the shelves marked “Fellowship”. Paper products are on the shelves to the right of the pantry door. If you notice supplies getting low, please feel free to replace those items with the exception of coffee filters, which must be special ordered; regular coffee filters will cause the coffee machine not to work properly. The items in the coffee brewing area in the kitchen in the cupboard to the right of the mugs should be replenished when noted that they are low from supplies in the pantry.

KITCHEN: Some of the drawers, etc., have been re-labeled. Please try to keep items in the correct place, as it makes it easier for everyone. If something is missing, please notify the church office or building and grounds people, so we can hunt it down.

LINENS: The linens in the pantry have been reorganized. All green tablecloths, all red tablecloths, green napkins, extra white/cream tablecloths, plastic table covers, and assorted odd tablecloths are all stored in their respective drawers. There is ample room for everything if it is returned to the drawers the same way they are currently stored. There are still linens for every Sunday use in the kitchen cupboards so the ones in the pantry can be considered extra or replacements for those stained too badly to be cleaned. Of course, you can use anything you want; but if we all put stuff away where we find it, it will make it easier for the next user.

DISH SANITIZER: This is not now nor has it ever been a dishwasher. Dishes and silverware must be washed by hand and well rinsed before being placed in the dish sanitizer, run, dried and placed back in inventory. If you wish not to wash dishes, there are plenty of paper plates and cups and plastic utensils in the pantry. (However, let us be good stewards if we can and not use disposables if not necessary.)

FREEZER: Items not marked or expired will be disposed of.

With more and more groups using our building, we want to make sure that everyone’s “stuff” is available and organized. Thank you,

Your kitchen re-organization group!

MARCH NEWSLETTER 2017

We sure had a great time at our Valentine's party. I hope that everyone had a wonderful February!

In March, we will be working on the letters S, T, and U. We will continue to work on our scissors, writing, and phonemic skills. We will be working with shapes, especially the triangle shape. We will also be going over bike safety rules to get ready for the bike a'thon at the end of the month, if the weather permits.

Our Bible verses are:

Philippians 4:4 - "Rejoice in the Lord always."

Upcoming events for March:

March 2nd - Pajama Day for Dr. Seuss's birthday.

March - Tea and Cookies - To be announced.

March 23rd - We will be having the 15th annual bike a'thon in the church parking lot, if the weather permits. Our students will be raising money for Family Promise. This is the second of the two service projects that we participate in. Students do not have to raise money to attend the bike a'thon. Students are asked to bring their bikes and trikes on this day with helmets. We will be making a fun course for the children to ride their bikes. Parents are asked to come and help control the masses, and to make sure all our students are following their bike safety rules. It will begin at 10:00 and kick off Spring Break.

March 28th - 30th - Spring Break - Have a wonderful break!

During Dr. Seuss week we will start a worm compost bin. If your child has the treat box he/she may bring in vegetable or fruit scraps, egg shells, or coffee grounds to feed to our worms.

We are almost full for the 2017 -2018 school year. If you know of anyone who may be interested, please let us know so we can get you a registration form. You are our best advertisement, so please let people know about our wonderful program. Thank you!

REMINDER: March tuition is due on the 10th.

Thank you!!!

Mrs Meehan

Its almost Tea Time...

Calvary Lutheran Church has a history of marvelous Ladies Teas, and we women have enjoyed them exceedingly. For many years Carol Fredekind planned, organized and put on these teas. Carol worked the whole year to put on each event, and she no longer feels called to be the one who makes the teas happen (although she was a valuable resource to our Caring and Fellowship Team, when we put on last year's Ladies Tea).

Putting on last year's tea was a tremendous amount of work for a few persons, and it is not possible for them to do it to the same capacity again-- Caring and Fellowship Team cannot spend the whole year putting on a tea, because we have so many other responsibilities.

We need help!

Soon we will put out sheets in the Fellowship Hall asking members and friends of Calvary Lutheran Church to suggest themes for a Ladies Tea on Saturday, April 29, 2017. We will also put out sheets with various tasks needed to be done, in order to accomplish a Ladies Tea:

- ⇒ Please sign up for some tasks.
- ⇒ And if you are approached and asked to do something for the tea, please say, "Yes."

Considering our history of many elegant teas, it would be sad for many, if we did not have one this year. But without your help we cannot have one. Thank you for your help in advance.

A meeting to discuss plans will be on Sunday, March 12th, after church!
